

Word/Idiom of the Week 44

Jack Frost nipping at your nose

Jack Frost is a personification of frost, ice, snow, sleet, winter, and freezing cold. You feel the cold, icy effects of winter on your face

i.e., It's December now, but I don't feel Jack Frost nipping at my nose.

Make your own sentences:

